,17(51 1$0($GGUHVV 7RZQ 6WDWH =LS &RGH

March 19, 2019

Dear 1 $ 0 (,

We are delighted to offerou a positionas asummer interrwith the Harvard Medical School s to work a minimum of 30 hors per week for at least 10 weeks. The days will be weekdays; the hours between 6:30 AM and 5:30 PM. There will be flexibility depending on both the timesensitivity of the work at hand anyour individual needs. You will work closely with our esearch team throughout the summer. This is an unpaid position.

Your activities will include, but not be limited to the following: conducting literature searches, reviewing medical records and ays for study data points; working with patients in the research setting. For each of these activities will receive training. You will learn how to review medical records and mays and will be taught by orthopedic residents, attending orthopedic faculty, and the research teal frou will learn how to interact with human subjects through observation and experiential mening. We will supervise these activities closely and monitor all the work that you produce