

2023–2024 noncustodial parent’s statement

This form is to be completed by the student’s noncustodial parent (whether divorced, separated, or unmarried living separately).

Boston College believes that the primary responsibility for educational expenses lies with the student and the family. Therefore, both biological parents must submit financial information in order to establish a student’s eligibility for financial aid. A copy of the noncustodial parent’s 2021 federal income tax return, including all schedules and W-2, and business tax returns (if applicable) are also required.

List the people in your family in the grid below. Include other people if they currently live with you and receive more than half of their support from you and your current spouse.
