RELIGIC

Ta ble 6. Same-G ps in the C rch: S a Th eol gical Viewpoints

	Cre	-affirming Vi oints	R der tion
Pro. ibition	Sa bel	Reconcilia Repent of ident the churc hibits desire an avior.	R etu to true heterosexual n atu
Tole ration	Sa ent der	Repent of choice. welcomin perso non-affir of de	S oic ceptance of one's t agi ate through absti- n enc
Acc mmo dation	Sa tra to	Focus: ga l lesbi relationsh While are disob t in fc they may bedier substanc nonog mous.	E xch ve, same-sex partner- s ips re better than promis- c nity – i.e., they are the l sse of the evils.
	Cr	g and Affirm Viewp	R ede ption
Leg itima ion	Sa lik di	Reconcili Focus: or tion. R t of singlin t gay s and igno other	R ede ption C rea a just world in which c iffe nces no longer make a c iffe nce.
Cel bration	Es a	Gays and ians n to be rec ed to t goodnes heir se orientati	I ive to one's sexual orienta- t ion God's good gift.
Lil eratio	Sc of	Challeng ary ge l categorie ale-fe	affi complexity of gender hoi s.
	C	ffirming, ana 'ering poin
Co secra tion	Se bl ar to	Reconcil Sin does reside orientati r beha per se b whetl one's life ghtly dered. O dation are a me of gra	Red ption One sexuality is to be con- ecr ed through an exclu- ive ommitted covenant, bles d by the church. Hu- ma , not sexuality, are the obj s of our celebration.

A TIME TO

Same-Gen der Re
in Religion, Law,

William Stacy

WILLIAM B. EERDMA NS PUB
GRAND RAPIDS, MIC HIGAN /
2006